Orientation Course

CSE-A2-C-17

- Dates 26-31 March 2017
- Venue RACVIAC - Centre for Security Cooperation, Rakitje, Stari Hrast 53 for the theoretical part; two Croatian military units for the practical part (TBD).
- Background The Course has been organized by RACVIAC - Centre for Security Cooperation since 2001 with the support of the Federal Republic of Germany. It is based on the provisions of the Agreement on Sub-Regional Arms Control pursuant to the General Framework Agreement for Peace in BA, Annex I-B, Article IV.
- Purpose & Objectives The purpose of this Course is to instruct the designated individuals on how to successfully perform their duties as inspectors and/or escorts pursuant to the Agreement on Sub-Regional Arms Control and to establish a common understanding of the Agreement in order to foster mutual trust and confidence as well as transparency during the performance of inspections. The objectives of the Course are:
- to inform and educate the participants on the General Framework Agreement for Peace in BA (Dayton Peace Accords), with a particular focus on the Agreement on Sub-Regional Arms Control;
  - to train the participants in the role of inspectors and escorts in the framework of the Agreement on Sub-Regional Arms Control.
- Participants The program is designed for military officers and non-commissioned officers dealing with the conduct of Arms Control inspections pursuant to the Agreement on Sub-Regional Arms Control.
- Participants will include the representatives (3 participants and one lecturer) from the following countries: BA, HR, ME and RS, while the remaining MAG Members are kindly invited to send one (1) representative respectively (each).
- In addition, attendees from invited Associate Members, Observers and participants may participate in the activity.

Other governmental organizations, agencies and international organizations dealing with the General Framework Agreement for Peace in BA may also participate in the Course.

Methodology The Course will last 4 working days and it will consist of a theoretical and a practical part. The arrival day is Sunday, 26 March 2017, and the departure day is Friday, 31 March 2017.

The Course will be conducted in the official languages of Agreement's Parties, although basic English knowledge is a definite plus. Simultaneous translation into English will be provided for participants who don't know the local language. All presentations should be in the Latin alphabet.
