2nd MEETING OF THE WORKING GROUP ON RACVIAC NEW ORGANIZATION

At the 2nd WG meeting in RACVIAC - Centre for Security Cooperation on 22nd September, 10 participants from 6 MAG countries (Austria, Croatia, Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia*, Greece, Moldova and Turkey), as well as one representative from the Regional Cooperation Council (RCC) and 7 RACVIAC representatives, led by the Director, Ambassador Nedžad Hadžimusić, shared their observations and actively engaged in discussions on RACVIAC new organization. Following MAG decisions on change of the RACVIAC mission, the Strategy Paper as well as the conclusions and recommendations of the first Working Group (WG) meeting on New RACVIAC Organization, participants discussed issues regarding upgrading of the proposed organisational framework, a preliminary organigram, producing detailed and revised job descriptions and laying down the nomination and vetting process.

Mr Ömer Burhan Tüzel, the Chairman of the WG, stressed that the first meeting of the WG on the 16th of June was a very fruitful one since it had produced a common understanding on the draft organigram, which had, in turn, constituted the basis for the preparation of the second meeting. He drew attention to the excellent “Background Paper”, including a set of job descriptions and revised organigram prepared by RACVIAC Staff for this WG meeting, as well as his own “Preliminary Comments” distributed in writing prior to the meeting, which stimulated the later discussion.

It was a sense of the Chairman that the participants had reached a common understanding on the following issues: the revised organigram, the creation of additional posts at RACVIAC and the equitable geographical distribution of posts at RACVIAC, the selection of Subject Matter Experts, however there was no understanding on the position of Program Managers. This issue is to be tackled at the next WG meeting.

The Chairman announced the intention to hold one final meeting of the WG prior to the next MAG Meeting planned for 31st October in Zagreb. He asked representatives of member states to come to the third WG meeting with instructions, and informed them that he intended to either present to the MAG a concrete proposal on the new structure of RACVIAC or to present his report on the outcome of the three WG meetings and refer the issue back to MAG for further consideration.

MEETING OF WORKING GROUP ON RACVIAC LEGAL STATUS

At the 19th MAG Meeting on 10th April 2008 in Chisinau, Republic of Moldova, MAG decided to establish a Working Group on RACVIAC Legal Status to be chaired by Croatia, and composed of all countries willing to participate in the group. The Working Group (WG) on RACVIAC Legal Status met on 7th July 2008.

The meeting gathered 20 participants from 8 MAG countries: Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, Greece, Moldova, Montenegro, Serbia and Turkey, as well as one representative from the Regional Cooperation Council (RCC) and six RACVIAC representatives.

The purpose of this Meeting was to review and refine the legal status of RACVIAC in accordance with the 19th MAG Meeting Conclusions. After comprehensive discussions and exchange of views the WG concluded to propose to the Multinational Advisory Group (MAG) to replace the existing Agreement as signed by Croatia, Germany, Italy and Turkey by concluding a new multilateral one, taking into account MAG deliberation on the future status and new strategy of RACVIAC.

Way ahead:
- Developing the first draft agreement (led by Croatia, in close cooperation with Turkey, Germany and Italy);
- Submitting the draft to all MAG Core and Associate Members, as well as the Observers for comments;
- Next meeting of the WG on RACVIAC Legal Status will be held during October.

VIENNA DOCUMENT 1999 ORIENTATION COURSE

The C-5 “Vienna Document 1999 Orientation Course” was carried out in the period from 30th June - 4th July 2008 in accordance with the RACVIAC Programme for 2008. The Course was conducted in two phases, a theoretical phase comprising lectures and presentations, which took place in RACVIAC - Rakitje, and a practical phase at the 91st Air Base Pleso in Zagreb.

The Course was organised for the fifth time in favour of military and civilian representatives of the countries of South-East European (SEE) region. The four-day Course provided the participants with the opportunity to meet their colleagues from the SEE region as well as to meet representatives and experts from different countries, organizations and agencies, all dealing with the execution of the VD 99’ and/or other arms control regimes for years.

The purpose of this Course was to provide participants with a theoretical overview of the VD 99’, giving a comprehensive analysis of both, theoretical and practical level of the implementation of these activities.

It was organized in accordance with the Vienna Document 1999, focusing on the duties and responsibilities of the personnel to be engaged in the implementation of the aforementioned arms control document, demonstrating the real spirit of the confidence- and security-building measures (CSBMs).

Course Objectives were:
- To overview the specified elements of the VD 99’, highlighting the most comprehensive and commonly followed rules and procedures of their execution;
- To provide the participants with the information about the current situation in the implementation of VD 99’;
- To train the participants in the subjects related to the planning and conducting of such activities either for the role of visitor/evaluator or escort pursuant to the best practices;
- To deepen contacts between representatives of national organisations and agencies engaged in the arms control and/or security- and confidence-building measures accomplishments;
- To provide participants with the opportunity to exercise or “observe” the real events, particularly during the practical part of the Course, thus adding a real value to the efforts of the SEE region in building security culture and environment.

Twenty participants from eight MAG countries participated in the Course (from Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia*, Moldavia, Montenegro, Serbia and Slovenia). Five lecturers (from Austria, Croatia, Germany, Hungary and Turkey) altogether assisted the activity by delivering presentations on the topics regarding VD’99. The invited lecturers covered the relevant theoretical part of the VD’99. According to the participants’ remarks the lectures fulfilled the requirements. Most of the presentations were met with high interest.

During the practical phase the participants were divided into two teams and conducted an evaluation visit. They practiced performing their duties both, as members of the evaluation team and escort team during their evaluation visit to 91st Air Base, and pursuant to the following procedures:

- Preparation of the Evaluation Visit,
- Execution of the Evaluation Visit,
- Debriefing

The invited lecturers presented a comprehensive and detailed overview of the relevant parts of the Document taken for investigation.

This practical part provided participants with the opportunity to exercise the real events and real life situations as members of the evaluation teams. It must be emphasized that all the participants were highly motivated during the Course. They were satisfied with the topics chosen and with the Course itself. They suggested organizing similar, even more detailed courses with some syndicate work and even more detailed and longer theoretical part in the future.

The practical phase of the Course was well-organized thanks to the professionalism and preparedness of the 91st Air Base staff (local escort), as well as the good and close cooperation between R A C V I A C and the Croatian Ministry of Defence and Verification Centre.

“Vienna Document 1999 Orientation Course” proved to be successful by the participants’ assessments given at the end of the event. They all agreed on the necessity of conducting these kinds of courses in the future.

Pursuant to RACVIAC annual programme for 2008 the Training & Verification Division organized and executed the “Seminar on Arms control in Crisis Situations” from 10th to 11th July 2008. The Seminar was organized in cooperation with the Federal Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany (FFO).

The purpose of the seminar was to provide a forum to allow for an in depth discussion of the ways as how conventional arms control can contribute to crisis management within the given limits. Fifty-eight participants from thirty different countries and organizations attended the seminar.

The participants were senior officials, decision makers, experts and managers in their national organizations with a large-scale of theoretical knowledge and practical experience.

Everyone agreed that the seminar tried to help to rectify this situation and to provide participants with the opportunity to gain deeper understanding of the subject matter, which certainly deserves greater attention. The chosen topic of the seminar proved to be a great asset in the light of the possible multinational cooperation. The participants were very pleased both with the seminar and the topics chosen and they proposed this seminar to become a tradition. All the participants recognized a need for better international corporation and coordination between the countries, when a crisis/conflict accrues.

The cooperation between RACVIAC and FFO ensured the presence of high-level participants, who gave particular relevant information for further consideration and discussions, as well as proposals for future projects.

Everyone agreed that the seminar brought an added value and showed fields and ways as how to work in the future as a platform for co-operation at both, national and international level, as well as to foster co-operation between the civilian and military sphere in Southeast European region.

OPEN SKIES TREATY ORIENTATION COURSE

RACVIAC – Centre for Security Cooperation, in cooperation with Federal Republic of Germany and Republic of Hungary, started a new Open Skies Treaty Orientation Course at 29th September.

The Course will be held in two phases; the first phase, from 29th September to 3rd October, will be a theoretical phase at RACVIAC in Rakitje, where participants will be introduced with Open Skies Treaty by presentations and will have discussions on topic. The second phase of the Course will be held in Republic of Hungary, at Kecskemét military air base, and at Cartography Institute at Budapest, where the practical part of Course will be occurring.

The first day of the Course, Colonel Kálmán Németh, Chief of Training and Verification Division, and Colonel Mihájlo Mladenović, Chief of Defence Conversion Cell, welcomed the participants, and after the short presentation of RACVIAC structure and activities, the first presenta-
Senior Colonel Hu Ping, the Defence Attaché of the People’s Republic of China visited RACVIAC – Centre for Security Cooperation on 27th August 2008.

Senior Colonel Hu Ping was welcomed on behalf of all RACVIAC Staff by Deputy Director and Chief of Staff Colonel Tomislav Vibovec. Following this welcome note PR Officer Capt Ružica Spajić held a brief presentation on RACVIAC mission, activities and structure.

Col Hu Ping concluded that organizations such as RACVIAC are crucial for regional stability and security and could serve as an example of good practice for similar regions around the world, especially for his home region of South-East Asia.

Colonel Ömer Faruk Bastürk and Captain Dobrislav Biloš from RACVIAC Dialogue & Cooperation Division participated in International Regional Conference “The Counterterrorism Challenges in Region of South-Eastern Europe” from 8th-12th September 2008. The event took place in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

The purpose of the Conference was to highlight the possible risks of Diaspora communities in supporting radicalism within the South-Eastern Europe, as well as the importance of cooperation between security, intelligence and police agencies of SEE countries.

At this conference, RACVIAC was introduced to participants by presentation held by Colonel Ömer Faruk Bastürk, who made them familiar with RACVIAC purpose and activities.

The Conference provided a great opportunity for presenting RACVIAC in the international area and for enhancing the cooperation and the exchange of lessons learned in the field of countering terrorism.

On 15th September a team of research fellows of the Centre for Civil-Military Relations from Belgrade, lead by Ms Sonja Stojanović as well as the Main Editor from Western Balkans Security Observer visited RACVIAC – Centre for Security Cooperation.

This visit was organized as a part of their Regional Study Tour around Croatia.

After an introduction of RACVIAC Centre the participants engaged themselves in a debate during which the guests from Belgrade expressed their interest in RACVIAC as the premier platform for dialogue on security cooperation in SEE region. They were also interested in RACVIAC new structure, future plans and mission, shared by many other regional initiatives founded by the Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe.

The representatives expressed their willingness to consider the signing of the MoU between CCMR and RACVIAC.
Deputy Director and Chief of Staff of RACVIAC – Centre for Security Cooperation, Colonel Tomislav Vibovec, provided moderation of the Coast Guard seminar in Split, held from 22nd to 24th September. The seminar was organized by the Coast Guard of Republic of Croatia in cooperation with the Ministry of Defence of the Kingdom of Norway.

Participants were representatives from Albania, Croatia, Montenegro and Norway. Vice admiral Zdravko Kardum, Commander of the Coast Guard of the Republic of Croatia, and Colonel Thor Arne Lysenstoen, the Defence Attaché of Norwegian Armed Forces, welcomed all participants and opened the seminar.

The main purpose/goal of the seminar was to share experience in Coast Guard operations and possibilities for Adriatic Sea regional cooperation. Delivered presentations provided participants with the opportunity to exchange thoughts and information on current issues concerning Coast Guard development, and to emphasize the importance of sharing experience in the framework of regional cooperation.

Based on the information presented at this Seminar, all the participants stressed that it was only through proper regional cooperation of the countries in Adriatic Sea region that a common environment protection and safe navigation on the Adriatic Sea could be ensured.

The seminar also highlighted the need for an established Coast Guard Forum for the use of further discussions of all issues regarding Adriatic Sea regional cooperation.

On the occasion of “10th Anniversary of the Verification Centre of the Slovenian Armed Forces” which took place in Brdo pri Kranju, Slovenia in the period of 23rd – 24th September 2008 Ambassador Nedžad Hadžimusić delivered a keynote speech providing a brief overview of the Sub-Regional Agreement implementation process and emphasising the successful results.

He also reiterated that it was only through regional co-operation among all its members and international partners, that the SEE region could pursue its march towards lasting sta-

On the second day the Director meet Mr Bogdan Benko, Director General, Directorate for European Affairs and Bilateral Political Relations in Slovenian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The purpose of the meeting was to express RACVIAC appreciation to the Republic of Slovenia for their ongoing support to RACVIAC and to further promote our mutual cooperation and partnership.

Ambassador Nedžad Hadžimusić took the opportunity to remind all of the major role of RACVIAC as the aircraft carrier in the region, ready for anyone with similar objectives to land and take off, reaching out towards all destinations in the SEE region and seeking for synergy with all organizations and institutions having similar strategic objectives in the region, and beyond, such as Slovenian Armed Forces Verification Centre.
