AGENDA

Irregular Migration and Its Effects on Security

06 - 08 June 2012

The purpose of this round table is to discuss the legislative aspects, standards, procedures lessons learned and the main challenges faced by EU, the states from the region and also of the international/regional organizations, in their efforts to manage/tackle the complex and diverse phenomena of irregular migration, human trafficking, document security, crime and terrorism, and their effects on security.

Objectives are:

- To get an insight into current EU legislative aspects, standards, procedures and decision making processes related to the subject matter;
- To explore the current regional situation through the presentations by the national delegations;
- To survey and promote the current international and regional efforts towards refugees and internally displaced persons;
- To highlight national policies of the SEE countries and the capacities of national institutions responsible for the prevention of and fight against irregular migration, trafficking in human beings, smuggling of migrants, crime and terrorism and document security;
- To promote intra-agency, inter-agency and international cooperation with third countries, in particular the cooperation among the neighbouring countries situated along irregular migration "routes";
- To identify the gaps and difficulties with regard to the above-mentioned issues and make recommendations for sustainable solutions.
